

Application Procedures for the International Observers

- a. Applicants must send the request letter to observer@election.gov.np in order to obtain login credential.
- b. Applicants shall obtain login credential in their email address after the request has been made.
- c. Completed online application form entitled "Application Form for Accreditation for International Observation" should be submitted to ECN through this system.
- d. Completed online application form entitled "Authorization Form for the Contact Person" should also be submitted to ECN through this system.